Nola says "Do you want a world where dictators and antagonists thrive? Where crimes against humanity go unresolved? Where people are treated as expendable and disposable commodities? Or, do you want a world where:

- people rise above their fears, take control of their destinies, work hard to overcome the evilness of the few, and change what they no longer choose to suffer?
- countries and organizations help others in times of immense need - during natural disasters, attack or famine?
- dictators and terrorists are exposed, caught, dealt with to the fullest extent of the law and prevented from committing further atrocities?"

No Boxing Allowed is a compelling book, winner of the North American Bookdealers' Exchange (NABE) Pinnacle Award for "Inspirational" books in Spring 2011, is listed by the Australian Institute of Management in their on-line library of business books, and has become a much respected and sought-after reference for people seeking to affect positive change in themselves and around the globe. Readers are:

- taught how to recognize, harness and channel positive personal power
- provided an invaluable checklist of great leadership behaviors and attitudes
- taught how to recognize controlling behaviors of others and the negative patterns in society
- inspired to be the best they can be
- compelled to ask themselves "why am I here; what good can I do for humanity?"
- taught how to recognize a self-limiting posture so they can improve their level of self awareness.....to the point of real self-intelligence and, by so doing, break free of life's boxes, labels and restrictions
- encouraged to erase their fears, trust their abilities and remove their baggage.....
