NOLA HENNESSY

Nola is a strong and unwavering advocate for peace, all people, the environment and justice. As a successful and insightful multi-award-winning international businessperson, author and strategic consultant in ethical governance and human rights, Nola is renowned for delivering outstanding results against the strongest adversity. She remains consistent in teaching and inspiring others to live lives of positivity, compassion, empathy, love and personal accountability.

Born in Australia in 1957, Nola is committed to empowering people. As a Thought Leader on Global Peace, long recognized for her capacity to influence for good and role model the right behaviors in context to the situation, Nola utilizes her global organization Serenidad Consulting[®] and related The Peace Ranch[®] activities as key mechanisms to affect change.

One of Rotary International's Inspirational Women 2011 and the USA's Women of Impact 2014, Nola rose from a childhood of severe constraints to become a senior manager at age 16, a senior leader at age 19 and, since 2010, leads Serenidad Consulting[®] in its strategic intent to facilitate positive relationships and global peace outcomes. Nola sees peace through an educator's lens, and consistently advocates for 'prevention' strategies and education as being the only realistic solution to our ongoing global conflicts and increasing levels of violence and discord.

Her guiding principles of Excellence, Great Leadership and Positive Personal Power, to achieve peace in relationships at every level around the globe, are eloquently articulated in her many books.
